

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Angela Rose

Rose Agency, Inc.

ABOUT ANGIE:

Angie is the Administrator at Perry Law Office, P.C., and the Manager of Rose Agency, Inc. She is responsible for the day-to-day operation and management of the office, staff management, space and facility management, and communication with law firm and agency owner.

Angie also provides administrative leadership for the office and serves as liaison between the office and agency owner. She has more than 25 years of professional experience in collections administration with an emphasis on human resources, employee relations, recruiting, personnel development, and team building.

Angie joined WOWnet in the fall of 2013. She is the current WOWnet Vice President and has also been a special events chairperson.

Angie has been married for 24 years to Jeff and they have two children, Logan 20 and Wyatt 18.

ABOUT THE COMPANY:

Rose Agency provides collection services with a balanced use of experienced agents and state of the art automation. Their collectors and vendors are fully compliant with the FDCPA, FCRA, and other related laws.

Perry Law Office and Rose Agency, Inc., work hand in hand together with its clients and are owned by Husband and Wife, Scott and Barb Perry.

Angie has worked for Scott Perry for 28 years at Perry Law Office and for 7 years with Rose Agency since it opened in 2009.

Angie, thank you for hosting the WOWnet February meeting!

